

Voter registration for the November 6, 2018, General Election ends October 13, 2018

Wilmington – Voter registration for the November 6, 2018, General Election ends October 13, 2018. You do not need to re-register if you are already registered. Citizens can check their registration status and perform other registration tasks at Delaware's Voter Portal – <https://ivote.de.gov>. If you have moved or changed your name, update your information so that the correct information is on the Poll List.

Voter registration requirements:

- A citizen of the United States
- A resident of Delaware (Delaware is your home)
- Will be 18 years old on or before the date of the next General Election

Register on-line

Delaware's IVOTE system operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week with the exception of occasional brief periods for system maintenance.

Register by mail

Print a form, complete it, and mail it to the Department of Elections office in your county. Mail your registration application before October 13th. The Department uses the postmark to determine whether or not it receives your application on time. Applications with a postmark later than October 13th are late.

Register in-person

Go to any Delaware Election Office on regular business days from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. You can also register to vote on Saturday, October 13th from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Citizens can also register at the Department's County Offices when they are open for in-person absentee voting.
